What is the Lynbrook Community Chest?

The Lynbrook Community Chest is a 501(C)(3) charitable organization with the sole purpose of providing assistance to residents of the Lynbrook community who are in need of help, due to financial or economic hardship.

Since its inception, the Community Chest has donated thousands of dollars to numerous families. These families are not required to return the monies; but because of the nature of these donations, several have attempted to help others the way that they were helped.

Bruce Levitt - Mur-Lee's

Bruce Levitt was raised in Woodmere, New York, the son of Murray and Doreen Levitt. After college, he moved to California to pursue acting, appearing in numerous television commercials and performing in several Off-Broadway productions.

In 1986, Bruce returned home to join the family business, originally founded in 1946 by his father, Murray, and uncle, Lee. In 2000, Bruce and his brother Harry assumed full ownership of the store following Murray's retirement. Together, they continued to grow the business while remaining deeply committed to their community and supporting numerous charitable causes.

After Harry's retirement in 2021, Bruce continued to lead the business, proudly upholding the family's legacy. He resides in Long Beach, New York, with his wife, Judy. They have three children and one grandchild.

Maintaining a tradition of exceptional customer service and serving multiple generations of loyal customers remains at the heart of Bruce's mission.

Michael V. Paladino - Malatesta Paladino, Inc.

Michael V. Paladino is a seasoned construction executive, real estate developer, and investor with over five decades of industry experience. As Co-Founder and President of Malatesta Paladino, Inc., a premier New York City-based concrete and masonry restoration firm, he has played a pivotal role in building the company from the ground up into a multimillion-dollar operation generating over $15 million in annual revenue.

Throughout his career, Mr. Paladino has successfully overseen hundreds of residential and commercial projects ranging from small-scale renovations to large, complex restorations valued at up to $5 million. His expertise spans all aspects of construction and business operations, including project estimation, contract negotiation, scheduling, permitting, and financial management. Known for his hands-on leadership style, he works closely with clients, engineers, and subcontractors to ensure projects are delivered on time, within budget, and to the highest standards.

In addition to his construction leadership, Mr. Paladino is an accomplished real estate investor and stakeholder in a diverse portfolio of residential and commercial properties nationwide, with an estimated value exceeding $30 million. He actively manages property operations, tenant relations, and long-term investment strategy.

Mr. Paladino began his career as a mason and contractor, gaining firsthand experience in concrete work, restoration, and fabrication. This foundation continues to inform his practical, results-driven approach to leadership and project execution.

Beyond his professional achievements, he is an active member of the Tiro A Segno Italian Heritage Club in New York, where he has held leadership roles including President and Vice President, contributing to community engagement and organizational development.

Dr. Ben Tieniber

Dr. Benedict Tieniber has dedicated his career to empowering youth through education, community service, and leadership development. For the past nine years, Dr. Tieniber has served as an educator at Lynbrook High School, teaching College Accounting I and II, College Business Law I and 2, College Virtual Enterprise, and Senior Seminar. Prior to this, he taught at the School for Tourism and Hospitality in the Bronx, fostering an unwavering commitment to youth success.

Holding multiple advanced degrees—St. Joseph's University (BS), Dowling College (MS in Adolescence and Ed.D.), SUNY Oswego (MBA), and Stony Brook University (SBL/SDL)—he brings a wealth of academic and practical expertise to his teaching. As an adjunct professor at SUNY Farmingdale and SUNY Potsdam, he continued to inspire students in Business, Math, and Economics.

Beyond the classroom, Dr. Tieniber exemplifies service leadership. For nine years, he advised the Lynbrook Key Club, shaping students into community-minded leaders. Under his guidance, the Lynbrook Key Club has achieved three International Distinguished Diamond Club Awards and received numerous proclamations and accolades from Legislators, members of the Assembly, Senators, and members of the U.S. Congress. His additional roles include Vice President of the Lynbrook Kiwanis Club, advisor to the S.T.A.R.T. Club, advisor to DECA, coach for middle school wrestling and baseball, member of the Lindenhurst Moose Lodge, and the Knights of Columbus (4th Degree Knight and Board Trustee). Dr. Tieniber also contributes as Vice President of the Long Island Business Teachers Association, Board member of Business Teachers Association of New York State, and serves on the advisory boards for the Rose Brucia Educational Foundation and Westco Financial Group.

Recognized for his impact, Dr. Tieniber was named Business Teachers Association of NYS Business Teacher of the Year in 2025, New York District Key of Honor in 2025, Lynbrook Chamber of Commerce Educator of the Year in 2024 and received the PTA Founders' Day Award in 2021. As the advisor for the New York State Business and Marketing Honor Society and a Virtual Enterprise facilitator, Dr. Tieniber has cultivated a legacy of fostering innovation and community engagement among students.
